

Andy Pag
Innovative Eco-Adventurer & Inspirational Speaker
Testimonials

‘Andy was extremely engaging, authoritative, enthusiastic and yet measured. He backed up his words with great photos and plenty of good stories. In short, very entertaining and people will remember him and his story.’ (Deloitte)

‘Andy wowed the crowd, and transformed the evening into a rollercoaster ride of adventure, and insightfully lessons.’ (Porters Progress)

‘Andy enthralled the crowd with this beautiful and exciting story. Of all the speakers at the conference, Andy’s talk stood out as unique and inspiring.’

(Eurochocolate Conference. Perugia)

‘We'd like to thank you most sincerely for your excellent lecture; it was much enjoyed by all attendees.’ (Royal Geographical Society (IBG), Hong Kong)

‘Andy is a thought provoking and highly entertaining speaker. Starting the talk with a picture of himself naked certainly captured the attention of the audience. And it only got more interesting after that.’

(Weiden Kennedy Advertising Agency)

‘From all the feedback we have received your presentation was informative, well-delivered and appreciated by the audience. Overall the feedback from the delegates was very favourable.’ (Biofuels Media)

Aug, 2008)

‘Andy’s visit fired the imagination of our pupils, triggering debate and contributions from even the shyest pupils of the school.’

(The New International School of Thailand)

A Selection of Media Quotes

‘It’s enough to get David Cameron salivating like August Gloop...’

‘Across the desert to Timbuktu in a car fuelled by chocolate’ Independent

(Nov 2007)

‘How to get to Greece on Chip Fat and Old Bangers’ Green Living The Times (Aug, 2008)

‘A team of drivers completed a 1,500-mile London to Greece rally yesterday in cars powered by waste cooking oil. The eight teams had scavenged used oil from restaurants and cafes along the route to Athens, which they turned into fuel using biodiesel processors. Mirror (Aug, 2008)

‘A well-known green campaigner is facing years in jail in India after being arrested on anti-terrorism charges because he was carrying a satellite phone.’ Telegraph (Jan 2010)

‘Andy Pag, 36, scavenged oil from fryers to clock up more than 29,000 kilometers traveling through 25 countries in an environmentally--friendly way.’ Jakarta Globe (Sept 2011)

‘A truck rescued from the scrap heap is about to complete a round-the-world journey - powered by waste vegetable oil.’ BBC News (Sept, 2011)